

A

New Generation

By Rep. Stephanie Herseth Sandlin

March 7, 2008

As a new generation of American veterans returns home following military service

My work on the subcommittee is informed by and improved because of the input I

The first week of March was also a busy one for veterans issues in Washington D.

At the Joint Senate and House Veterans' Affairs Committee hearings this week, gr

As the Chairwoman of the Economic Opportunity Subcommittee, I am leading the

The MGIB should be restructured under the principle that benefits should match the

Another recurring theme has been the inadequacy of funding for veterans initiatives

While the President has proposed increased spending on VA health care, it still falls

I continue to take very seriously our obligation to veterans. Congress must provide